● ABOUT ME

I am a Full Stack Developer passionate about creating complete and efficient digital solutions. With a solid foundation in both front-end and back-end development, I combine technical expertise with creativity to deliver impactful web applications. I am an Engineer who transitioned into the technology field, driven by a passion for innovation and continuous learning. My experience working in technology startups has strengthened my ability to develop dynamic, scalable, and user-focused applications. As a web developer and programmer, I enjoy building projects from the visual interface to the server-side logic, ensuring seamless integration and high performance. I want to contribute to challenging projects, collaborate with talented teams, and keep expanding my skills in modern web technologies.

Hard Skills:

- Front-End Technologies: HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, TypeScript, SASS, Tailwind CSS, Bootstrap, React JS, Angular
- Back-End Technologies: NodeJS, Express, PostgreSQL, Prisma ORM, Python, NestJS
